Thank you from the Care Quilt Committee

The Care Quilt Committee would like to thank everyone who donated quilts (50) for Brazos Valley Hospice clients and supported the Committee throughout the year! In particular, Sue Sprott and her sister, Gloria, who have donated 130 quilts this year plus 32 more for Hospice in memory of their Mother. We appreciate everyone's support! If you donated in memory of someone, please email Laura North so your loved one can be recognized in the next newsletter. Thank you and Happy New Year!

BBQG Christmas Party

The BBQG membership enjoyed a spectacular Christmas party on December 11 at the Brazos Center. The event was hosted by guild members Sue Sprott and Stephanie Fazzino. A lavish buffet featured pork roast prepared by Stephanie and dishes provided by guild members. Individual tables were adorned with mini trees decorated by guild members. The trees were judged and a prize awarded for best tree. The trees were then given as door prizes. Additional door prizes were provided by Marty Fuller and Terry Skrabanek from Lone Star Quiltworks.

Special guest, Daphne Hennessey (Volunteer Coordinator for Texas Home Health and Hospice), attended to accept 50 quilts and matching pillow cases donated to Hospice Brazos Valley and Texas Home Health. The quilts will be given to Hospice and Texas Home Health clients for Christmas. Thirty of the quilts and pillow cases were made by Sue Sprott and her sister, Gloria Warren*, and the remainder were made by other guild members.

be straight, your stitches even, points pointed, corners matched, contrasts definitive not muddled, and your seam ripper unused. In other words, "Happy quilting!"

Busy Bees met infrequently in December. They have volunteered to make the raffle quilt for 2014 so that will be their major project for 2013

Happy Scrappers are working on individual projects that include care quilts and Dear Jane quilt blocks. The range and choice of colors for the Dear Jane blocks are interesting. Other bee members continue to work on bibs and the wheelchair/walker bags to be donated. Debbie G. is the new reporter for the Happy Scrappers.

Material Girls are ever busy with various projects ranging from big and small quilts to pajamas, knitting a scarf that was worn in the Arts Council Building, and making banners for birthday grand daughters. Jane C. hasn't been busy at quilting but was pictured hanging out with the famous "Johnny Football" at the airport as he went through her security post.

Last Tuesday they had a Christmas meeting at Mar-ijane's. Her husband furnished door prizes- a wood turned watch and seam ripper. The small gift exchanges initiated an impromptu challenge to make something for next year with the two matching fat quarters all received.

Quilt 'n Peace members were occupied with family members or personal surgeries in December so meetings were cancelled. Carol L had a hip replacement and Rowena R. knee repair and Peggy M was out of town with her daughter. They plan to resume in January.

ThumbleBees began the month of December with an enjoyable trip to Galveston for Dickens on the Strand. Later in the month, they celebrated Christmas with a luncheon at La Riviera Restaurant followed by dessert, coffee and a gift exchange at Linda Novosad's home.

Beginning in January 2013, the Thumblebees will meet the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month.

Following the dinner and presentation of the Hospice quilts, many of the guild members participated in a Chinese gift exchange. Although many gifts were "stolen" and not everyone went home with the gift they really wanted, no friendships were lost and everyone left smiling.

"The party was a nice ending to the year. Thank you to Sue, Stephanie and everyone else who helped make it such a success." The party was a nice ending to the year.

* Gloria Warren, was made an honorary member for 2012. She was nominated by Jo Ann Williams for this privilege because of her many contributions to our guild.

Bee News

This, my last column, is being written during the longest night of the year. Ordinarily I think of the winter solstice as the shortest day, but I read an article emphasizing the long night. Whether you are a night owl or a morning person, we all have 24 hours each day to do with as we choose. As a quilter, I prefer the brightness of day to do my sewing.

Christmas 2012 will be history when you read this and it may already be 2013 so I'll convey my wishes that are echoed from those of the Bee Leaders or Reporters - "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year." May your seams

BLOCK-OF-THE-MONTH 2013

Amish-style quilt blocks have been chosen for the 2013 Blocks-of-the-Month. We have researched Amish quilts and find that only the Amish can make Amish quilts! Therefore, We "English" must call our blocks Amish-style quilt blocks!

You are encouraged to make a Block-of-the-Month each month for the BBQG drawing, and a block for yourself. At the end of the year you will have contributed to a BBQG tradition (making a quilt block and putting your name in the "pot" for a drawing at each Guild meeting, at which time one member wins all the blocks). You will also have twelve Amish-style blocks to make your own Amish-style Sampler Quilt.

Amish-style quilts are made of solid-color fabrics (prints are considered worldly!). Amish-style quilts typically feature two or three dominant colors. An inner border is added to frame the quilt; a second border (twice as wide as the first) is added. Additional borders may be added as desired. A color already in the central design of the quilt is used in at least one border. Light colors and white are rarely used in Amish-style quilts. We have chosen to use black as the background color for BBQG blocks, which is typical of Amish-style quilts. However, you may chose to use another dark color for the quilt blocks you make for yourself: dark brown, dark maroon, dark green, navy blue, etc.

We are planning to begin in January with a very simple Amish-quilt block. The instructions will be distributed at the November BBQG meeting. As the year progresses, quilt blocks will have added techniques.

Kona cotton is a good choice for Amish-style quilts. Solid-color fabrics are becoming popular once again so you should have no problem finding fabric.

As we begin making Amish-style blocks, any questions may be directed to Linda Winder, Chair, Connie Harrison, Peggy Mobley or Rowena Reed.

Happy Quilting!

AMISH-STYLE QUILT

You are encouraged to make a block-of-the-month for the BBQG and a block for yourself. At the end of this year you will have 12 Amish-style blocks to make your own Amish-style Sampler Quilt. Amish-style quilts are made of solid color fabrics. Amish-style quilts typically feature two or three dominant colors. An inner border is added to frame the quilt; a second border (twice as wide as the first) is added. Additional borders may be added as desired. A color already in the central design of the quilt is used in at least one border. Light colors and white are rarely used in Amish-style quilts.

Kona Cotton is a good choice for Amish-style quilts.
